900 Rue Riverside, Saint-Lambert, QC J4P 3P2

Special Care
CONNECT

"I think we all have empathy. We may not have enough courage to display it."

– Maya Angelou

Empathy is key to understanding the "other". It includes compassion, the capacity to connect and risking vulnerability. It is fundamental to working effectively with clients who need our care to gain the perspective of the "other". Empathy needs to be reflected not only in our daily practice but also in the policies we develop and implement. Is it possible to have effective interventions without empathy?

The Power of Empathy to Effect Change

Kathryn Peterson, Adm.A, Psycho-educator

Empathy is the foundation of working with clients with special needs. Listen to Kathryn's engaging story on the impact empathy plays on building therapeutic relationships with clients. What happens if empathy is hard to access or absent? Can you be effective in your work without it? Come and learn from Kathryn's experience and expertise what it takes to be and remain empathetic throughout your career. Learn how the power of empathy can effect "change".
